suprising inasmuch as Chairman Boland had expressed the position that HPSCI would not consider charter legislation until such was passed by the Senate. We are attempting to determine further information independently on this development.

For your additional information, a draft (Intelligence Div.) of your opening statement should be completed by COB 2/20/80. Upon completion, it will be presented to you for review. Thereafter, we will arrange to have it forwarded to the Department and the charter working groups for their parusal. The working groups have requested this statement reach them no later than Noon, Friday, 2/22/80. Of course, you may wish to alter this statement at some later point particularly with regard to FOIA depending upon [redacted] and whether the Attorney General reaches a decision on that issue prior to your testimony.

b7E

We have arranged to brief you regarding the charter on Tuesday, 2/26/80, comencing at 2:30 p.m. The Intelligence Division is putting together a briefing book for you which you will receive by Monday, 2/25/80. Further briefing materials have already been made available to [redacted] which he will make available to you before this weekend.

MEMBER

SENATOR

In addition to the aforementioned, the joint group also discussed the composition of the SSCI Members and their attitude towards the charter. It was generally agreed that three Members, namely, Senators Birch Bayh (IN), Walter D. Huddleston (KY), and Joseph R. Biden (DE), will fully support passage of an entire charter bill. Three other Members, Senators Daniel K. Inouye (HI), Edwin (Jake) Garn (UT), and David F. Durenberger (MN), prefer a full charter but would be willing to extract pertinent provisions for piecemeal consideration. Seven other Senators are currently hostile to the charter and are interested only in considering the three principal issues facing the SSCI, namely the Hughes-Ryan Amendment, FOIA, and "Intelligence Identities Protection." These individuals are Senators Daniel P. Moynihan (NY), Henry M. Jackson (WA), Barry Goldwater (AZ), John H. Chafee (RI), Richard G. Lugar (IN), Malcolm Wallop (WY) and Adlai Stevenson (IL). It would appear, therefore, that the Administration's strategy to seek passage of an entire charter may run into strong opposition. Indeed, it is our belief that the strategy to seek passage of an entire charter is vulnerable. We will discuss this matter with you at greater length at future briefings.

It was also learned that the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) is planning to introduce identical charter legislation sometime next week. This revelation was somewhat.

Dear Mr. Kelley,

I am most grateful that you could take time out from your very busy schedule to attend my swearing-in. It was especially meaningful to the entire Intelligence Community that you could be there.

I was particularly honored that you were able to attend the reception afterwards so that you had an opportunity to meet [redacted] and other members of my staff.

Again, thanks.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Admiral Turner:

The Federal Bureau of Investigation will host an International Symposium on Terrorism at the FBI Academy, Quantico, Virginia, July 6-8, 1978. The symposium is designed for senior law enforcement officials and other ranking government officials who would have an interest in this subject matter.

b6

The topics to be discussed are designed to make the participants more aware of the threat of international terrorism and the necessity for cooperation between nations.

Most of the lecturers will be high-ranking foreign officials who have handled terrorist incidents in their respective countries. We have tentatively arranged for speakers from the United Kingdom, France, Portugal, Spain, Germany, Japan, The Netherlands, Israel and Italy to make presentations.

It is indeed a pleasure for me to extend a personal invitation to you or your designated representative to participate as our guest during the symposium.

As time is of the essence, your prompt reply is needed so that appropriate arrangements can be made.

Meals and lodging will be provided by the FBI; however, regulations require that transportation expenses must be paid by your organization.
